

9:00-9:30	Welcome address
	Professor Michalis Attalides Rector, University of Nicosia Christiana Paparoditi Representative of Friedrich Ebert Stiftung Cyprus Office Tao Papaioannou Head of the Department of Communications, University of Nicosia
9:30-10:15	Keynote Session I
	Introduction of the Keynote Speaker Mike Hajimichael, University of Nicosia Explaining the Financial Crisis: The Middle Ground Suman Gupta, Open University, UK.
10:15-10:30	Coffee Break
10:30-12:30	Presentation Session I
	Session Chair: Tao Papaioannou, University of Nicosia Conforming to the Protest Paradigm? Framing of the 2013 Protests among Cypriot Citizens in International Online News Media Tao Papaioannou, University of Nicosia Cypriot Citizens during the Island's Financial Crisis: Comments and Impressions of A Correspondent Flora Alexandrou, Cyprus Correspondent of EFE (the Spanish News Agency) Producing Protest News: Representations of Contentious Collective Actions in Cypriot Mainstream Media Lia-Paschalia Spyridou, University of Cyprus Three Massive Social Protests in Two Partisan Dailies: A Mixed Method Approach Damianos Lambidonitis, the Mass Media Institute Facebook and Activism in A Financial Crisis: A Content Analysis of Online Posts of Citizens' Groups Sophia Tangaridou, University of Nicosia Critiquing the Crisis through Music - Three Songs about Life in Cyprus Before and After the Financial Haircut of March, 2013 Mike Hajimichael, University of Nicosia
12:30-14:00	Lunch at Gallery Restaurant, University of Nicosia
14:00-14:45	Keynote Session II
	Introduction of the Keynote Speaker Craig Webster, Cyprus Review, University of Nicosia Articulating Participation and Agonism: Agonistic Re-articulations of the Cyprus Problem in the Broadcasts of the Community Webcaster MYCYradio Nico Carpentier, Vrije Universiteit Brussel - Free University of Brussels

14:45-16:45	Presentation Session II
	Session Chair: Craig Webster, Cyprus Review, University of Nicosia Media amidst the Crisis: The Questions We Failed to Ask and the Role of "Facts" Michalis Persianis, Head Editor for Economy and Finance at Kathimerini, Cyprus, Cyprus Correspondent of the Wall Street Journal Radio Coverage of the Economic Bailout Package (in Greek) George Pavlides, University of Nicosia Cypriot Economic Crisis - Crime and Punishment: Great Expectations or Realistic Possibilities? Nicos Pavlides, NAP Regulatory Compliance Services Ltd Cyprus Mainstream Media Responsibilities: Is There A Solution? Harry Violaris, WAKEUPCyprus The Role of the Media and Journalists in the Historical Developments of the "Cyprus Problem" Costas Yennaris, Journalist/Commentator Cyprus Correspondent of Greek National Television (ERT) The Role of New Media during Strategic Changes in the Cypriot Political Environment Marcos Komodromos, University of Nicosia
16:45-17:00	Coffee Break
17:00-18:00	MA Student Panel: Participation and Digital Media
	Session Chair: Nicholas Nicoli, University of Nicosia Cyta's Forum Campaign Strategies and Tactics of Using Social Media Tools Christina Lambidoniti Challenges of Online Journalism in Cyprus: Reporting for like.com.cy Theodora Chrysostomou Media Strategies in Crisis Communication from the Student's Perspective: A Case Study of the University of Nicosia Maja Tepeh Fostering Audience Engagement through Strategic Use of Social Media: The TEDx Experience Adonis Michael
19:30	Social Dinner
	Prosilio Restaurant Ilia Papakiriakou 2, Egkomi, Nicosia.